

The Snow Bridge and Other Stories

By Philip Chatting

Proverse Hong Kong, Hong Kong, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Alternate edition. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The settings of the stories in The Snow Bridge and Other Stories are drawn from a life spent in many countries. Several focus intently on a particular relationship: that between a husband and wife, mother and daughter, brothers, friends, partners, climbing-buddies, employer and employee; the relationship with an inner self; putative relationships that never quite begin, and relationships with a location, or the inhabitants of a small town. Other stories explore the long-term expatriate's dilemma of engaging with a place not his or her own at the price of diminishing intimacy with the country of his or her birth. Described in Philip Chatting's, Author's Introduction, as, entertainment, the impact of the collection may prompt readers to reflect on the nature of their own relationships and the place we each occupy in our own worlds. Philip Chatting is a master stylist. He invests himself in the traumatic conflict, character identification, and ethical complication that sit at the heart of the heart of necessary and affecting social fiction. --Jason S Polley (from...
