Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Politics for American Farmers: Being a Series of Tracts, Exhibiting the Blessings of Free Government, as It Is Administered in the United States, Compared With the Boasted Stupendous Fabric of British Monarchy You hear every day of men crying out for war - for navies - for extravagant expenditures of money - for alliances with one power, and for hostility against another power - and it is difficult sometimes to account for these strange fantasies. There are certain truths, however, which the humblest man in point of information in the whole country can discover, and there are certain plain inferences to be drawn from the obvious facts, upon which no two men can honestly differ. No man will deny that peace and the security and happiness which it produces in a free government is the most desirable state of human society: no man will deny, that America owes to her pacific policy, that prosperity which has rendered her the envy of the world, and to which the unfortunate of the old world look for a safe refuge; no man will deny, that a pacific policy is that of all others inculcated by religion, and that nothing can be so foreign and destructive of religion and virtue as war and its concomitants. A nation then must be opposed by some overwhelming necessity, some irresistible evil not to be avoided or guarded against, if it can be at all justifiable in deviating from the principles which ensure happiness - which are the causes of prosperity - which are the fundamental principles of religion. Nothing but the obvious imminent danger of this happiness, and all the coincident blessings,...
