Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Discourse: Delivered in St. Peter s Church, Charleston, on the 6th of December, 1850, the Day of Fasting, Humiliation, and Prayer, Appointed by the Legislature of South-Carolina 1st Kings, 20th, 11th, - And the King of Israel answered, and said, - Tell him: - Let not him that girdeth on his harness, boast himself as he that putteth it off. This was the message of Ahab to Ben-hadad, - and it seems to me not unsuited to the occasion which has convened us. The commonwealth of which we are citizens, has been threatened by those who wield the power of the General Government. The Legislature, now in session, has appointed, at the suggestion of the Governor, a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer, that the Divine Guidance may be imparted to that body, in devising such measures as will conduce to the best interests and welfare of our beloved State. In compliance with the request made in the Executive Proclamation, that the Clergy throughout the State assemble their respective congregations to-day, to unite in Prayer to Almighty God for His direction and aid, I have, at some personal inconvenience, returned to the city, that I might conduct your devotions, and suggest such thoughts as seem to me befitting the occasion. I make no apology for entering upon the great political question which is agitating the country. For the past, the present, and the future, I claim as deep an interest in all that concerns my native State, as most of her sons; and I see no reason why I should withhold from you the views I entertain at this crisis. If they seem to...
