Not illustrated. 1897 Excerpt: the county superintendent depends or is regulated by the number of schools, and I have no doubt that if the number of schools increase so as to increase his salary during his term of office he is entitled to such increased salary.--T. S. Riley, Attorney-General. county super-54. The county superintendent shall visit each school to within his county, at least once in each school year, at such time as he may deem necessary and proper, and note the course and method of instruction and the branches taught, and give such directions in the art of teaching, and the method thereof in each school, as to him shall seem necessary or expedient, so that the uniformity in the course of studies and methods of instruction employed shall be secured, as far as practicable, in the schools of the several grades, respectively. He shall acquaint himself, as far as practicable, with the character and condition of each school, noting any deficiencies that may exist, either in the government of the school, the classification of its scholars, or the method of instruction employed in the several branches, and shall make such suggestions in private to the teacher, orally or by writing, as to him shall appear to be necessary to the good order of the schools and the progress of the scholars--He shall note the character and condition of the school houses, the sufficiency or insufficiency of their furniture and fixtures, and shall make such suggestions to the several...
