Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from State Board of Accounts: Department of Inspection and Supervision of Public Office Hon. Samuel M. Ralston, Governor: Sir - One year has elapsed since I assumed the position as State Examiner of the State Board of Accounts. In reviewing the work of the past year, I am much gratified with the hearty cooperation and uniform courtesy extended this department by the public officers of Indiana. The mission of the State Board of Accounts is to impartially investigate the public offices of Indiana, to prescribe and install a uniform system of accounting that is practical, economical and understandable; to clearly define the duties of officials so they will be no longer in doubt as to the correct method of transacting the business of their respective offices, and, through our legal department, to advise the officials on the legal construction of the statutes with the view of aiding officials in the proper discharge of their duties. Field Examiners. The work of examination of public offices, and the installation of public records is assigned to field examiners. This...
