She prefers things to be as uncomplicated as possible-but when her friends drag her to a party and she bumps into her high school crush, the path of Blaire s life veers in an entirely different direction than what she had planned for herself. Jason Bryant created a nice life away from his hometown, putting distance between himself and the suffocating sadness of his father s death. But when he finds out his grandfather s health is deteriorating, he decides he must return home. Partying was not on his agenda while in town, but it s how he bumps into Blaire Hayes-the girl he d always thought of in high school as an unobtainable pass. Together the two learn there are moments in life that hold within them all the power to break you.
