

I Am Not Made of Stone

By Joleen Marie

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2014. Paperback.
Book Condition: New. 170 x 117 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This story is about my own personal fight against cancer. I am not defined by the cancer. However I was changed by what the cancer took from me. My family was never the same and I was treated differently from that point on. The emotional damage has remained with me. I do not trust people in general. I keep to myself with only a few close friends. I hate asking for help that way I can never be let down or hurt by others. I have a great inner strength that gives me the strength to fight or know when to walk away. It is very common for families under stress of a sick child to divorce. They grow apart and feel helpless. That is not the case with Joleen Marie. In her gripping memoir I am Not Made of Stone, she discusses her own battle with a deadly illness. In times of hardship, families must unite and become stronger. Joleen s life is living proof as to the importance of a strong loving family. Build up your family and...
