But the American Colonization Society founded a nation and continues to strengthen it in order to elevate a race and redeem a Continent. So God takes the weak things of the earth to confound the things that are mighty. May God bless the Society and give it increasing power in the eyes of the citizens and Government of the United States. Yours respectfully, Anthony W. Gardner. PROVIDENTIAL IN ORIGIN AND MISSION. The conviction is deepening and spreading that the American Colonization Society is providential in its deepest Christian sense, in both its origin and mission. And especially now is the hand of God opening the way for enlarged successes in its philanthropic work. Such was the feeling expressed by members of the Society and of the Board of Directors at the annual sessions held in January. The Minutes of the meeting, with most of the papers then presented, are given in this number. Also, the Sixty-Fifth Annual Report. The addresses by Rev. Dr. William Rankin Duryee and Bishop William R. Nicholson, D. D., were admirable and impressive in their presentation of the claims of African Colonization. These we hope to have enrich other pages of the Repository. The prospects for the future progress of the work are bright and hopeful. The quality of the applicants for homes in Africa is improving in intelligence and material substance, and the agricultural and commercial developments of Liberia are increasing in quantity and value. The cause of education...
