Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Chemical News and Journal of Physical Science, Vol. 108: A Journal of Practical Chemistry in All Its Application to Pharmacy, Arts, and Manufactures It is, without doubt, the finest example of a General Index which has been published in connection with chemistry. - Chemist and Druggist, May 3, 1913. It is an excellent compilation, and sure to be of great service to chemical readers generally. - Pharmaceutical Journal, May 10, 1913. The Chemical News is to be congratulated on having had the courage to undertake and the perseverance to carry out a work of this description. The task has been carried out in a thoroughly workmanlike spirit, and as it contains a key to the history of every development in chemistry during the fifty years covered it should prove extremely useful to everyone interested in science. - Journal of the Royal Society of Arts, May 23, 1912. In indexing articles, the spelling and nomenclature originally adopted by the authors has been adhered to. So far as has been noticed, this is the one blot on an excellently planned and finely executed work of a monumental character. - Journal of the Society of Dyers and Colourists, June, 1913. The Index under review is one that will be necessary to every reader of the Chemical News, and, indeed, will be useful to all chemists, giving, as it does, references to so many subjects, such as university intelligence, c., which are found in perhaps no other chemical journal. - Nature, June 19, 1913. A great service has been now performed for the active chemist in making this mass of material easily accessible through a general index. It is...
